

Making the most out of the new Apprenticeship Levy

Business Breakfast Seminar

Wednesday 29 March

Everything you need to know about the Apprenticeship Levy and how it will fund support for employers in accessing apprenticeships and also support for applicants accessing apprenticeships.

Join us for breakfast and networking and hear from Steve Rankine, Director of Finance and Corporate Affairs at Northampton College who will be explaining how this ESF project opportunity can:

Increase the skills of your current workforce

Address skills gaps and difficult areas to recruit

Increase access to apprenticeships for the workforce

Support employers to increase employer participation in apprenticeships

Location

Cranfield Innovation Centre, Cranfield University Technology Park MK43 0BT.
